

Congratulations Blaine Miller & Annabelle Newsom!

It was an honor to be a part of your project showcasing the environmental impact invasive species have on the Florida ecosystem.

You should be proud to have your project recognized on the national level. Know that because of your project you have made a difference and impacted the citizens of Florida to take action to protect the Florida ecosystem.

Sincerely,

Christopher Torge

Director of Animal Operations

Central Florida Zoo & Botanical Gardens

